

Enroll today – spring classes start February 1

- Remote and on-site classes
all courses hybrid unless noted
- Pastoral and non-pastoral tracks
- Degree and non-degree options
- Full-time and part-time
- Local church focused
- Affordable

Get more info or apply at www.kbbiva.org

Returning students can register directly through Populi

- Application fee waived (new applicants)
- Try us for three weeks free
- Half-off tuition for audit classes
- Financial aid available

Take your Christian service to the next level at KBBI

COURSE OFFERINGS SPRING 2022

TUESDAY EVENINGS

7:00 PM PAS 102 Homiletics II J. Mix

Methods of sermonizing, including outlining and developing sermons, logical arrangements of discourse, and effective delivery of sermons. [Continuation of Homiletics I]

7:00 PM MIN 281 Effective Women's Ministry S. Mix

The role of women's ministries in a church, with a special focus on how the church can address personal and family needs through women's ministries. [Offered on-site only; no remote]

8:00 PM MIN 206 Church Planting Moore

Scriptural principles and practical guidelines for planting new churches. For the church planter, those helping with a church plant, and members of a church sponsoring a church plant.

9:00 PM BIB 102 Bible Doctrine II Schoeff

A study of the basic teachings of the Bible, with special attention to the doctrines that differentiate the Baptists from other groups. [Continuation of Bible Doctrine I]

THURSDAY EVENINGS

7:00 PM EVG 203 Islam Moore

History, cultural setting, beliefs, and practices of Islam, with a focus on developing relationships with Muslims that enable effective presentation of the gospel.

8:00 PM H&S 401 Church History I Bowling

The history of scriptural churches from the establishment of the first one by Jesus, including the spread of Christianity in the early church age, persecution, and the rise of doctrinal differences. [First semester of a two-semester course]

9:00 PM BIB 252 Gospel in Totality Huth

Explore gospel themes throughout the New Testament, tracing the revealed plan of God that provides promises, blessings, and benefits for all who believe.